Free Outdoor Music and Dance Series Celebrates House Music, Providing a Platform for Local Artists from L.A.'s Vibrant Music Scene

WHAT:

Grand Park's Sunday Sessions, showcasing L.A.'s finest House music curators, presents its final event on August 29, 2021. The free outdoor summer dance party features a line-up of DJs that celebrates the contribution of L.A. artists to the American-originated, globally embraced art form of House music. Guests can picnic or purchase food from popular food trucks and enjoy the sounds of summer in a beautiful setting right in the heart of Downtown L.A. Grand Park's Sunday Sessions will take place on the park's Performance Lawn, just north of Hill Street.

Grand Park is also partnering with the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health to host a free mobile vaccination clinic during Sunday Sessions during the entire time of the event from 3:00 p.m.–7:00 p.m. Walk-ups are encouraged, but guests can pre-schedule a vaccine appointment at grandparkla.org.

WHO*:

Showcasing a range of rare finds from past decades to modern remixes and covers, Deejay Clifton, Liz O., Riley More and Loopdropkid will spin an all-Vinyl set for the ultimate summer party soundtrack. Hosted by KG Superstar, the summer's final Sunday Sessions will honor the sounds that served as a precursor to House and dance music with a day dedicated to Northern Soul, Funk and Disco.

Schedule/artists subject to change.*

SAFETY:

Guests must wear face coverings when entering performance, dancing and other communal areas during outdoor events in Grand Park; these areas will delineate where crowds could form on the dance floor and concert spaces.
